

The world of labour in bilateral agreements

2012/104631

- The cooperation of MGYOSZ, NHO and MSZOSZ -

The base of the project

How does the new Labour Code promotes the bilateral agreements?

How could collective agreements serve the aim of proper, valuable and balanced agreements on all level level based on the new regulation.

(introduce new possibilities and making proposal for minimalizing „loss” of negotiating parties)

Booklet

- Description of Norwegian collective bargaining system, providing best Norwegian practises
- Description of the Hungarian collective bargaining system
- Labor law chapter on the rules of the Labour Code; focusing on those elements what provides special flexibility for negotiations compering to the former regulation
- Questions and answer on labour law (50 or 70)

trainings

- preparatory trainings on labour law: 3 times, 3X50 person, (1:1 TU and EO representatives)

- ability-development trainings on negotiation and communication techniques, simulating actual practical situation games from the field of collective agreements.
(2 times, 2X50 participants, 1:1)

Interactive website

E-learning framework system:

- Written training materials
- Video record of the seminars
will be uploaded
- Advisory surface on labour law

Final Conference with Hungarian and Norwegian social partners as speakers

Thank you for the attention!